

Society of Indiana Archivists Annual Meeting 2011 Request for Proposals

Deadline Extended to December 1, 2010

We cordially invite you to share your archives knowledge and experiences at the upcoming SIA Annual Meeting, to be held in Indianapolis on Saturday, April 2, 2011.

Overview

Sessions last approximately 50 minutes. They may be presented by individual speakers, co-speakers, or panels. Sessions may cover basic archival principals and problems archivists face every day, or specific issues where archivists need extra guidance. Sessions should be informative, inspiring, create discussion, focus on the practical applications of the topic, and maybe even be fun!

Choose a Topic

We are not limiting session ideas for this meeting. They may be lecture-based, hands-on, panel discussions, or other formats. We will accept any topics for review. A few topics suggested by the general membership to be covered in future meetings you may consider include:

- Grant writing
- Legal form development
- Research and usage fees/policies
- Fundraising
- Educational programming
- Public relations/outreach
- Digital media transfer and storage
- Photograph/Film handling and care

Submit a Proposal

If you are interested in submitting a proposal, please email the Annual Meeting Committee via Jackie Shalberg, SIA Vice President, at jackies@modelaircraft.org with the following information:

- A session title
- A brief description of the proposed session
- Your name and contact information (valid mailing address, telephone number, preferred email address)
- The names of other persons presenting with you (if applicable)

Deadline Extended!: Please submit proposals by Wednesday, December 1, 2010. Proposals will be reviewed by the Annual Meeting Committee. Submitters will be notified by Monday, December 6, 2010 if their presentation has been accepted. If you are chosen as a speaker, your registration fee to the Annual Meeting will be waived. Please note: You do not need be an SIA member to submit a proposal.

We look forward to reading your proposals!